We have contracted with an online ticketing system to create a better on line experience when purchasing tickets for shows and events.

We have identified an online service that will make your ticketing and show experience better! In preparation for ticket purchases for our events, we have already updated our web site and our social media sites with this new service. It will be a much easier opportunity to purchase and use tickets. We promise!! Tickets may still be purchased at the door, however, as we often sell out, we highly recommend purchasing tickets in advance at: www.thehaylofters.ludus.com Or email us at tickets@thehaylofters.com for more information.
