Plan To See These Shows-And More!

◆ Almost Maine -May 18-28 : TICKETS AVAILABLE!

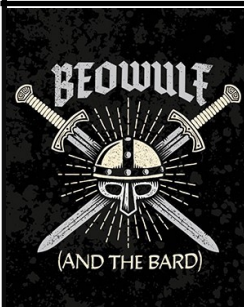

In the town of Almost, Maine, people experience the life-altering power of the human heart. In a series of playful and surreal experiences, relationships end, begin, or change beyond recognition, as strangers become friends, friends become lovers, and lovers turn into strangers.

Check out website for tickets now! They are going fast!!

◆ Big Fish July 13-23 : Auditions May 22 & 23

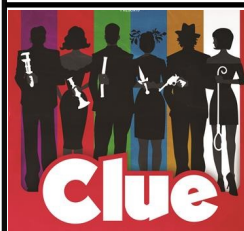

When Edward Bloom becomes ill, his son, William, travels to be with him. William has a strained relationship with Edward because his father has always told exaggerated stories about his life, and William thinks he's never really told the truth. Even on his deathbed, Edward recounts fantastical anecdotes. When William, who is a journalist, starts to investigate his father's tales, he begins to understand the man and his penchant for storytelling.

◆ BEOWULF Young Haylofters August 10-13

Beowulf (and the Bard) is a fun, frenetic and freewheeling farce that updates the Old English poem about the warrior Beowulf, who must rescue the mead hall from a hideous ogre (and his even more hideous mother). Told through the eyes of the epic's writer—a character known simply as “the bard”—the comedy's events unfold much differently than the familiar story passed down through the ages. In reality, Beowulf is an out-of-shape prince hoping to fulfill the heroic code, while the bard is a desperate poet struggling with a nasty case of writer's block. This retelling also introduces a new female character: the bloodthirsty warrior princess Gunborg, whose quest to reach her heroic destiny is ignored by her overprotective father, the king. Beowulf (and the Bard) is a comedy about friendship, duty and what it means to be a hero.

◆ Clue October 19-29 Auditions August 27-28

The classic board game is brought to life in Clue: Six guests are invited to a dinner party thrown by an anonymous host. They are given aliases--Colonel Mustard, Mrs. White, Mr. Green, Mrs. Peacock, Professor Plum, and Miss Scarlet. Though discouraged from revealing personal information, it is soon discovered that all of them have fallen victim to the same blackmailer, their very host of the evening. Each is presented with a weapon and an option: pay their extortionist double, or kill the innocent butler. What follows is a madcap, slapstick evening full of murder, mystery, and laughs as they seek to puzzle out the culprit amongst criminals.

But Wait, there's more!

♦ Holiday Concert December 2 (2PM)-3 (7PM) : If you were fortunate enough to see our 2022 holiday concert you already know how much fun this can be! Our own Kerry Bienemann orchestrates a wonderful holiday collection of music that is sure to get the family into the Christmas Spirit! Plan on attending this annual event!

♦ Charlie Brown Christmas December 8-10 : Auditions October 23 & 24

When Charlie Brown complains about the overwhelming materialism that he sees amongst everyone during the Christmas season, Lucy suggests that he become director of the school Christmas pageant. Charlie Brown accepts, but is a frustrating struggle. When an attempt to restore the proper spirit with a forlorn little fir Christmas tree fails, he needs Linus' help to learn the meaning of Christmas.

SUPPORT THE LOCAL ARTS

Haylofters Readers Theater

We are finalizing plans for our summer version of Readers Theater once again this year!

This is an enriching and highly entertaining interactive gathering in the park to read and participate in short scripts that are really fun! Or feel free to come and observe!

We anticipate our schedule for this popular series to be:

- ◆ Second Tuesday of June, July and August at 1PM. Located at Wiemhoff park pavilion.
- ◆ Second Tuesday of September and October at 1PM. Located at the Wiemhoff park pavilion. If weather does not cooperate, we plan to move to the Library as needed.

Each event is informal and offers the ability to read and participate, or simply watch and enjoy! You HAVE TO see this. Very unique and a lot of fun... AND its free!
